

Terica Lamb is the West Region Community Relations Manager at Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA). Her previous roles include Manager of Economic and Community Development at Memphis Light, Gas and Water, Manager of Community Outreach and Financial Empowerment at the Shelby County Trustee's office, and various roles at IBM, FedEx, Coca Cola and Fidelity Investments.

She holds Bachelor degrees from Spelman College (Natural Science), Georgia Tech (Industrial Engineering) and a MBA from University of Memphis.

She is also active in organizations such as the TN State Social Action Lead and Social Action Co-Chair of Memphis Alumnae Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., Leadership Memphis, and New Growth In Christ Christian Center. She is the proud mother of three boys.